

KCME 88.7 FM

Classical Music

COLORADO SPRINGS PHILHARMONIC ENCORE BROADCASTS ON 88.7 KCME

2011 CONCERTS	LIVE DATE	BROADCAST
Titan	Sept. 17-18	Sept. 26, 2011
Enigma Variations	Oct. 1	July 2, 2012
Brahms & Sibelius	Oct. 22-23	Oct. 31, 2011
Greater Russia	Nov. 12-13	Nov. 21, 2011
2012 CONCERTS
Beethoven & Bernstein	Jan. 28-29	Feb. 6, 2012
Reformation	Feb. 18-19	Feb. 27, 2012
The Planets	Mar. 10	Aug. 6, 2012
Rachmaninoff	Apr. 14-15	Apr. 23, 2012
Petrushka	Apr. 28	Sept. 3, 2012
Bernstein Gershwin	May 12	June 4, 2012
Resurrection	May 19-20	May 28, 2012

All broadcasts begin at 8:00 pm on 88.7 KCME.

All classical 88.7 KCME is member supported independent public radio.

Founded in 1979, KCME operates as a non-commercial, nonprofit station that derives its support from donors, businesses, organizations, government agencies, and foundations. From its transmitter atop Cheyenne Mountain, it reaches all of Colorado Springs, Manitou Springs, and Pueblo. Translators serve the communities of Salida, Buena Vista, Canon City, Florence, Cripple Creek, Victor, Woodland Park, and Summit County. For stations in these communities, visit kcme.org. KCME can also be heard around the world at kcme.org.

KCME is proud to support the activities and events of other nonprofit arts organizations by providing public service announcements free of charge. KCME is also delighted to air Colorado Springs Philharmonic broadcasts—see the schedule on this page or stop by the KCME booth in the lobby during select performances to pick up a bookmark schedule of broadcast dates.

KCME Encore broadcasts
generously sponsored by:

