All-Classical 88.7 KCME-FM celebrates Black History Month

All-Classical 88.7 KCME-FM commemorates Black History Month with The Sounds and Songs of Black History in order to celebrate the achievements, culture, talents, and contributions of Black musicians throughout history. This program, The Sounds and Songs of Black History is being written and produced by Jana Lee Ross and Michael Campion of KCME.

From February 1 through February 28, KCME will be broadcasting The Sounds and Songs of Black History, Monday through Friday at 9 a.m., 2:00 p.m. and 5:00 p.m. Saturdays, The Sounds and Songs of Black History will air 8 a.m., 10 a.m. and 4 p.m., and on Sundays at 8 a.m., 1 p.m. and 4 p.m. Just a sampling of the 28 musicians being highlighted will be, William Grant Still, Chevalier de St. Georges, Jessye Norman, Paul Robeson, Branford Marsalis, Charles Holland and Duke Ellington.

Tune into All-Classical 88.7 KCME-FM or listen on line at www.kcme.org. For a complete list of artists being heard during Black History Month on KCME, go to www.kcme.org. For a daily synopsis of The Sounds and Songs of Black History, visit KCME on Facebook every day in February.
